PRODUCT INFORMATION

Typically per tablet:

Turmeric Spice	10,000mg
(as 500mg of turmeric root extract) providing 95% curcumins.

The key active constituent in turmeric is curcumin which is found within the root of the plant.

Lamberts® Turmeric extract is a high potency root extract standardised to provide 95% curcumins, which is the level generally used in studies. It can safely be taken alongside products such as glucosamine sulphate and fish oils as well as a multi-vitamin and mineral product.

Naturally speckled tablet, therefore variation may occur.
